TO ADVERTISERS.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and Franklin County, of any daily paper, and on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at errand boys and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office, copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

NO. 13, STEAMBOAT TRAIN, on the Central Division, leaving St. Albans at 4:55 a. m., and arriving at Burlington at 1:15 a. m., will not run after Saturday, September 12, 1868 during the season.

"POP" DAVIS ARRESTED.—This lad was arrested last evening in E. C. Gall's Meat Market, whither he had gone, he said, for peaches. Mr. Gall had issued various sums of money from me to time from his money drawer, and was on the street conversing with unstable Falley in relation to the matter when they heard a noise in the Market House. The store had been closed for the night, the door was opened, and there appeared "Pop," who had evidently popped into one of the rear windows, which venture made it necessary for him to find quarters with Sheriff Falley, in the County Jail.

LOOK OUT FOR PICK-POCKETS.—This is the cry that comes to us from the late Fair, and Van Amburgh's Menagerie at Burlington. The Menagerie exhibits to-day at Fairfax, and to-morrow will be here. We are informed that gangs of professional pick-pockets follow after the show, to enrich themselves on other people's pockets. Honesty may be the best policy but these fellows do not so regard it, look out for them, beware of pick-pockets.

I. O. G. T.—A Good Templar's lodge was organized at Georgia Centre, Wednesday evening, and the following officers installed:

E. P. Clarke, W. C. T.
 Miss A. M. Blake, W. V. T.
 Q. C. Colton, W. S.
 Mary J. Clark, W. T.
 C. V. Bliss, W. F. S.
 W. R. Richardson, W. M.
 Miss B. A. Bliss, W. I. G.
 D. S. Bullard, W. O. G.

GOOD TEMPLERS IN VERMONT.—A correspondent of the Rutland Herald says a Grand Lodge of Good Templars in Vermont was instituted in January, 1863, and composed of ten Subordinate Lodges. At the Annual session of the Grand Lodge, held at Burlington, January, 1867, the G. W. S. reported twenty-six lodges. In July 1868, eighty-four Subordinate Lodges stand upon the Grand Lodge roll an increase of fifty-eight lodges in eighteen months.

The oldest lodge in the State is Pictou, No. 4, of Coventry, now six years of age. In our old Green Mountain State there are no less than 4,000 true men and women banded together by this order, fully determined to reclaim the alien and save others from falling.

BEAR CAUGHT.—A black bear weighing two hundred and fifteen pounds was caught in a trap in Huntington, by Mr. D. D. Sprague, on the 6th.

MR. POMEROY BIGELOW, of Bennington, the Banner says, has sold from 11 hens since Jan. 1st, 1868, one hundred and seven dozen eggs, and raised 22 chickens, up to Sept. 7th. Can this be surpassed? If it can, tell us who owns the "biddies."

THE LEBANON SPRINGS R. R.—Rapid progress is now being made on the Lebanon Springs Railroad. In all, 18 miles of track are laid. From Bennington out 7 miles are down, and the construction trains running over them. Track is also being rapidly laid in Petersburg, and also at the lower end of the route. It is calculated the iron will be down through to Petersburg by the end of this month, without fail.

THE STATE FAIR.—Senator Edmund's address before the Vermont State Agricultural Society yesterday was an able production, and very fully reproduced in the Burlington dailies of this morning. The attendance at the State Fair yesterday was variously estimated at from 12,000 to 18,000 persons.

From the Montpelier Journal.

The Election in Montpelier.

We gave, last week, the result of the balloting in Montpelier to five o'clock on Wednesday morning. It was then announced that the next ballot would not be counted until 9 o'clock, and this gave the people an opportunity to go home for an hour or two. At 9 o'clock, the box was turned, the voters generally having returned, and the vote was—

E. P. Walton	194
R. Richardson	189
A. D. Bancroft	139

During the night, Mr. Richardson and his friends had suggested to Mr. Walton and his supporters, that, as it seemed apparent that neither Mr. Richardson nor Mr. Walton could be elected, both sides should unite on some other person. To this Mr. Walton assented, but those who were most active in his support seemed disinclined to agree to it. Mr. Richardson's friends suggested Mr. James R. Langdon as a compromise. After the first ballot, on the morning of Wednesday, it became apparent that no choice could be made of the candidates then being voted for, and those voting for Mr. Walton then agreed to support Mr. Langdon. That gentleman was accordingly nominated by Mr. Walton, and Mr. Richardson seconded the nomination, and he was elected on the next ballot by the following vote:

J. R. Langdon	300
A. D. Bancroft	146
Scattering	16

Mr. Langdon was called out, after the result of the ballot was declared, and briefly thanked the people for the honor done him, and pledged himself, as their representative, to consult their interests and carry out their wishes.

Mr. Langdon is well known among the business men of the State, although he has never taken an active part in political controversies. He is a decided Republican, a gentleman of large means acquired by his own energy and business sagacity; and now, having sold out his business, he has leisure to devote himself to matters of public concern. He is not a public speaker, and so will not be prominent as a debater; but we look to see him make a wise, prudent, and sagacious legislator, watchful of the public weal, and deeply interested in whatever concerns the welfare of Montpelier.

Political.

The Democratic Convention at Clyde, Ohio, nominated E. F. Dickinson of Fremont as a candidate for Congress from the 9th District.

Hon. Stephenson Archer has been nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention from the 2d District of Maryland.

Aaron W. Gilbert, a member of the colored Democratic Club of Augusta, Ga, has recently resigned, saying in his letter: "Starvation and death may come, and me without a dollar in my pocket, and still I will be a Republican, and always will be, so as to have an equal showing before the law."

In Cincinnati, the Republicans have formed a Grant and Colfax cavalry battalion. The uniform consists of cavalry jackets, red caps, with white top and yellow band, with a star; body belts, red, white and blue.

Wade Hampton says he prays to God that the negro may have wisdom enough to vote the Democratic ticket. This is the latest attempt to degrade that unhappy race.

All doubt about the position of Gen. John A. Dix has been removed by the receipt of a letter in Washington from him, in which he hopes that Grant and Colfax may be elected.

Private letters from Arkansas, received in Washington, state that numbers of Union men, with their families, are fleeing from their homes in that State, and hiding in the woods from fear of assassination.

There seems to be some dispute as to the position of Senator Henderson of Missouri. The St. Louis Democrat says that he is soon to speak "for Grant and Colfax, and the whole Radical ticket," but the Republican denies that he will do so.

Ex-Senator Cresswell, of Maryland, has returned from a stumping tour in Maine, and asserts that no doubt is entertained of the overwhelming defeat of the Democratic ticket in that State. Senator Fessenden is of the opinion that the Republicans will gain 10,000 on their vote of last year.

The Congressional nominations are nearly completed in Pennsylvania.—The Democrats are making strong efforts to carry the Fifth, Tenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Twenty-first Districts, now represented by Republicans. On the other hand, the latter expect to retain all these districts, and in addition to carry the Twelfth, now represented by the Hon. Geo. W. Woodward.

The Hon. Gerrit Smith, writes as follows in reply to a request for him to address the Republicans of Oneida:

PETERSBURG, N. Y., Sept. 5, 1868.

EDITORS OF ONEIDA DISPATCH: I learn that there is a desire to hear me speak at Oneida, in behalf of the election of Grant and Colfax. I propose that the meeting be next Thursday (10th) at 2 p. m. I cannot speak at Oneida again this fall. I can speak but once in any county, unless it be in this—and in this I can not speak more than twice, or it possibly may be thrice. In this life and death election, in which the success of the Democratic party would be the death of the nation, and the success of the Republican party its life, I wish to speak abroad as well as at home. Respectfully yours,

GERRIT SMITH.

The Cleveland (Ohio) Herald says: "At a meeting at Waynesburg, recently, the Zorites, a communion of German separatists, now grown quite wealthy, and who have heretofore kept away from political meetings, were out in force. They came in a procession, thus testifying their great interest in the Presidential campaign. The Zorites have always been a loyal people, being Quakers of very liberal ideas, and have always freely contributed for the Republican cause, but this was the first political meeting they ever attended."

The Richmond Whig is disgusted with the "twaddling speeches" delivered by Mr. Reverdy Johnson in Sheffield. "England," it says, "lost her last real well-wishers and admirers on this continent when, guided by the short-sighted and cold-blooded policy of that political mummy Lord Russell, she stood by and saw the conservative and agricultural population of the Southern States politically extinguished. Her wishes may delude her to trust in the dotish discourses of Mr. Johnson; but if the time ever come, she will find that no nation will enjoy with keener relish any misfortune that may befall her, than her loving kindred on this side of the ocean."

The Democrats of the Second District of Minnesota have nominated Eugene Wilson for Congress.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John A. Griswold, of Troy, the Republican candidate for Governor of the Empire State, was introduced to the people of Vermont by Senator Edmunds at the State Fair yesterday as the next Governor of New York. Perhaps this was a little premature, but we are confident the November elections will sanction the statement. At the close of Mr. Edmunds' address, Mr. Griswold was called out and made a handsome and felicitous speech, to which the vast assembly responded with frequent rounds of applause.

The Burlington Times says Charles Seymour, editor of the La Crosse Republican, a Burlington boy of pluck and popularity, who can best "back against" Brick Pomeroy, is here visiting his relatives and old friends and also as Representative of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society. He was among the notables at the Fair yesterday.

Pollard, the rebel historian, does not regard with favor the visit of Gen. Rosecrans to the coterie of ex-rebel Generals. He speaks of the self-imposed mission of a certain Federal General of Chickamauga memory as absurd and misplaced; and sharply raps Gen. Lee, who, he says, should have known his place better, as "even Gen. Lee has no right to speak for the public mind on questions of politics."

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peas, Peaches, Water Melons and Musk Melons. dtf-94.

The palm of superiority is awarded to Mrs. S. A. Allen for her Improved new style Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle), and a grateful public appreciates the very low price, One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it. 4w

Every family needs to keep in the house something that will cure headache, toothache, acute pains, lameness, bruises, cramps, and other kinds of pain and suffering, and what is there so good as Renne's Pain-Killing Magic Oil. dw

A STARTLING TRUTH.—Thousands die annually from neglected coughs and colds, which soon ripen into consumption or other equally fatal diseases of the lungs; when, by the timely use of a single bottle of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, their lives could have been preserved to a green old age.

THE DIFFERENCE.—One of the chief points of difference between civilized and barbarous mankind is the attention given to the natural covering for the head—the one being carefully cut, cleansed, and brushed, and the other allowed to remain dirty and unkempt. The use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" will ensure all that could be desired by civilization or ignored by barbarism.—Boston Post. dw
